You are a miracle worker, thank you so much! Everyone is raving about the book and it's on its way to Dallas as we speak. I'm just sad I never got to see it so I'm hoping that we get to make a couple more. Will let you know.

When you have a moment to breath, please send me the actuals so I can get you a PO.

Carrie,
We are finished with all the mounting and in the process of building the cover. Still need to stamp, case in and let stand under weight. Im still thinking end-of-day for this. Maybe take it to the airport and hand it off?? Let see how the next couple of hours goes and I'll report back.
Thanks, Stephen
